

This story is a bit racy, so be warned. I thought it was humorous and likely something that in real life could really happen. One must be careful around machinery or suffer the consequences. This story is about . . .

The Pickle Slicer

Fred worked in a pickle factory. For many years he had a powerful desire to put his penis in the pickle slicer.

Unable to stand it any longer, he sought professional help from the factory psychologist.

After six months, the therapist gave up, and he advised Fred to go ahead and do it or he would probably never have any peace of mind.

The next day he came home from work early. His wife, Norma, became alarmed and wanted to know what had happened.

Fred tearfully confessed his tormenting desire to put his penis in the pickle slicer. He went on to explain that today he finally went ahead and did it, and he was immediately fired.

Norma gasped and ran over to her husband. She quickly yanked down his pants and shorts only to find a normal, completely intact penis.

She looked up and said, "I don't understand. What about the pickle slicer?"

Fred replied, "I think she got fired, too."
